

COBRA Continuation of Group Health Coverage Notification/Election Form

The Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA) requires that your group plan allow qualified persons (described below) to continue group health coverage after it would otherwise end. The term "group health coverage" includes any medical, dental, vision care, and prescription drugs coverages that are included in the group health plan.

This form does not state:

- (a) all of the terms of the plan.
- (b) all of the terms of the plan which restrict coverage or benefits by condition or limitation.
- (c) all of the terms required by law.

A complete description of plan provisions and benefits is outlined in the booklet certificate previously provided by the group planholder (employer).

A. Qualified Persons/Qualifying Events. Persons who qualify for COBRA continuation:

- (1) a member (and any covered dependents) whose group health coverage ends due to: (a) termination of employment for a reason other than gross misconduct, or (b) a reduction in work hours. (Note: Taking a leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) is not a qualifying event under COBRA. A member qualifies for COBRA when the member does not return to work after completion of FMLA leave.)
- (2) a member's former spouse (and any children) whose coverage ends due to divorce or legal separation.
- (3) a member's surviving spouse and/or children whose coverage ends due to the member's death.
- (4) a member's child whose coverage ends due to ceasing to be a dependent child under the terms of the plan.
- (5) a member's spouse and/or children whose coverage ends if the member is enrolled under Medicare.
- (6) a member's child who is born to or placed for adoption with the member who is on COBRA continuation due to termination of employment or reduction in work hours.

Exception: COBRA continuation is not available to any member or dependent who after the date of COBRA election becomes enrolled under Medicare or covered under another group health plan and has satisfied the preexisting exclusion provision.

Each qualified person (member or dependent) has independent COBRA election rights.

B. Continuation Period. Group health coverage can continue up to the maximum continuation period. The following are the maximum continuation periods:

- (1) 18 months following a termination of employment or reduction in work hours for all qualified persons (members and their covered dependents).

Exception: Following a termination of employment or reduction in work hours, a qualified person may request an 11-month disabled extension of COBRA continuation. The maximum COBRA continuation will be 29 months (see section H for further information).

- (2) 36 months for dependents following the death of the member, a loss of dependent status under the plan, or a divorce or legal separation.

Note: If coverage for a dependent was terminated in anticipation of a divorce or legal separation, the 36 months begins on the date of divorce or legal separation, provided the member or dependent notifies the planholder (employer) within 60 days of the qualifying event.

- (3) When a member becomes enrolled under Medicare before employment terminates, work hours are reduced, or a decision to drop group coverage, the maximum continuation period for the dependents will be the longer of:

- (a) 36 months dating back to the member's enrollment under Medicare; or
- (b) 18 months from the date of the qualifying event (termination of employment, reduction in work hours, or decision to drop group coverage).

- (4) For a member's child that is born to or placed for adoption with the member while on COBRA continuation, the maximum continuation period for that child will be the member's maximum continuation period.

- (5) If any of the qualifying events described in A(2) through A(5) above occur during the 18-month continuation period (or 29 months for qualified persons on the disabled extension), such period may be extended for the qualified dependents to 36 months dating from the member's termination of employment or reduction in work hours. The extension is only available if the second qualifying event described in A(2) through A(5), absent the first qualifying event, results in a loss of coverage for dependents under the group health plan. A member's child who is born to or placed for adoption with the member who is on COBRA continuation may also be eligible for a second qualifying event that occurred prior to birth or placement for adoption. Requests for the extended continuation period must be sent to the planholder (employer) within 60 days after the occurrence of any qualifying event.

- C. Termination of COBRA Continuation. COBRA continuation ends the earliest of the following:
- (1) the date the maximum continuation period ends.
  - (2) the date the qualified person becomes enrolled under Medicare.
  - (3) the date the qualified person becomes covered by and has satisfied the preexisting exclusion provision of another group health plan.
  - (4) the end of the last coverage period for which payment was made if payment is not made before the grace period ends (see item F below).
  - (5) the date the planholder's (employer's) group health plan is terminated. (The continuation period may be completed under the replacement plan, if any.)
- D. Monthly Cost. Qualified persons who elect COBRA continuation are required to pay the entire cost for the continued coverage as well as an additional 2% administrative fee as allowed by COBRA. Persons who qualify for the disabled extension and are not part of the family unit that includes the disabled person are required to pay the entire cost for the continued coverage as well as an additional 2% administrative fee during the disability extension. Persons who qualify for the disabled extension and are part the family unit that includes the disabled person are required to pay 148% of the entire cost plus the 2% administrative fee for the 19th through the 29th month of coverage (or through the 36th month if a second qualifying event occurs during the disabled extension).
- E. Election Requirement. Qualified person(s) must make written election within 60 days after the later of: (1) the date group health coverage would otherwise end; or (2) the date of the planholder's (employer's) notice. The election form must be returned to the planholder (employer) within the 60-day period; otherwise, the COBRA continuation option expires.
- F. Grace Period. Qualified persons have 45 days after the initial election to remit the first payment. All other payments (except for the first payment) will be timely if made within 30 days following the due date (date of statement), or within the grace period of the plan if it is longer than 30 days. (Longer grace periods are not available in Nevada.) Claims will only be honored through the last date paid.
- G. Plan Changes. Continued group health coverage(s) will be subject to the same benefit and rate changes that apply to the group plan. Qualified persons have the same open enrollment rights offered to active members under the group health plan.
- H. Disabled Extension. Following a termination of employment or reduction in work hours, a qualified person (member or dependent) who has been determined disabled by the Social Security Administration either before or within 60 days after a qualifying event may request an extension of COBRA continuation from 18 months to 29 months. A member's child who is born to or placed for adoption with the member who is on COBRA continuation may also qualify for the disabled extension if the Social Security Administration has determined the child disabled within 60 days after the date of birth or placement for adoption. The disabled extension applies to each qualified person (the disabled person or any family member), who is entitled to COBRA continuation as a result of termination of employment or reduction in work hours.
- The qualified person must submit a written request for the extension to the planholder (employer) within: (a) 60 days after receiving the Social Security determination; and (b) before the 18-month continuation period ends; otherwise the right to the 11-month extension expires. The 11-month extension to all qualified persons will end the earlier of: (a) 30 days following the date the disabled person is no longer determined by Social Security to be disabled; or (b) the date COBRA continuation would normally end (see item C).
- I. Newly Acquired Dependents. A qualified person may elect coverage for a dependent acquired during COBRA continuation. All enrollment requirements that apply to dependents of active members apply to dependents acquired by qualified persons during COBRA continuation. Qualified persons must apply to Principal Life Insurance Company for coverage for newly acquired dependents. Refer to the booklet certificate for provisions regarding dependent eligibility and effective dates.
- Coverage for newly acquired dependents will end on the same dates as described in Section B. Exception: Coverage for newly acquired dependents, other than a member's dependent child who is born to or placed for adoption with the member under A(6), will not be extended as a result of a second qualifying event described in B(5).
- J. Other Group Health Coverage or Medicare. If during the continuation period a qualified person becomes enrolled under Medicare or becomes covered by and has satisfied the preexisting exclusion provision of another group health plan, COBRA continuation will terminate. Any payment of benefit after COBRA continuation should have otherwise been terminated will be considered to be a benefit overpayment. Qualified persons are required to repay any benefit overpayment.
- K. Individual Purchase (Conversion). When a qualified person is no longer eligible for COBRA continuation, he/she may apply for Individual Purchase if available under the group health plan. Persons who are eligible for similar benefits which would result in over-insurance or whose COBRA continuation ends because payment was not made timely may not purchase conversion. Application for Individual Purchase, and payment of the required premium, must be made within 31 days after COBRA continuation ends. Dental and vision care coverages are not included with the Individual Purchase option.
